MINICOURSE COMMITTEE

Walker-Grant added something new this year: minicourses. With student, parent, and teacher help, students were given the chance to explore interest areas without the pressure of a grade! Under the leadership of Ms. Cordell the committee offered the following: introduction to French, woodcrafts, history of sports, dance, Black history, sewing, cooking and bridge to name only a few.

Mrs. Adegbalola, Harry Tillman. 2nd row: Rodney Dixon, Albert Christian, Nancy Whitticar, Miss Bishop, Mrs. Copp.

INDEPENDENT STUDY

Independent Study is a new program at W-G. Designed to let selected students do independent work on or off campus, this program provided us with a chance to learn about subjects not offered in the regular classroom. Some student projects this year involved the Fredericksburg Geomagnetic Center, women in drama, gangsters of the 20's, and comic art. Each student in the program, along with his teacher-advisor evaluated his own or her own study.

CAREER EDUCATION COMMITTEE

Students at W-G were lucky because we had a Career Education Committee. Since this committee of teachers, students, and parents was very active this year, students had the chance to learn about job opportunities and to plan for the future!

1st row: Mrs. Street, Mrs. Ramer, Mrs. Copp, Mrs. Myers, Terry Duggins, Jody Spiller, Mr. Anderson, Sheila Truslow, Mr. Jones. Not shown: Gary Cooper.

Where did he go? Into thin air?

If I told you once, I told you a million times.

Caught in the act—using PAPER.

And a one and a two and a 1, 2, 3, 4.

"I heard that!"

Now listen here, you guys.

And don't do it again.
